Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for twenty years," declares Mrs.
James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating and drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up. I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength

WALTER DAVIS

Bradley Blames Trust.

That the outrages of the night-riders in Kentucky and Tennessee resulted from the oppression of the American Tobacco Company and that unless the internal revenue tax on leaf tobacco in the hand is repealed, these outrages will again occur, was the declaration made by Senator Bradley, of Kentucky, Friday in urging the adoption of his amendment to the Senate bill.
This amendment proposes to restore the tariff bill the House provision for the free sale of leaf tobacco by the farmer, which was stricken out by the Finance Committee of the Senate.Mr. Bradley reviewed the growth of the American Tobacco Company from the time of its organization in 1890 with a capital stock of $25,000,000 to the present day with stock, including that owned in subsidiary companies amounting to more than $500,000,000.Not content with destroying all competition in the United States, Mr.
Bradley said the American Tobacco Company drove the Imperial Tobacco Company of Great Britain, its chief competitor, to a compromise and obtained an agreement by which the Imperial yielded up all competition in the United States.This is from a Republican Senator, yet he knows too well that his party fosters this trust and all others. Oh, the old hypocrite.

$100,000 String.

Mr. Gus L. Macey has arrived in Lexington with the $100,000 stable of trotters and pacers of George H. Estabrook, the Denver merchant and sportsman, to prepare them at the K.
T. H. B. track for the campaign on the Grand Circuit.

Big Farms Sold.

Paul Lancing has sold his farm near Midway, known as the Payne place, to James Richardson for $60,000. The farm has an old colonial residence on it.
Mr. E. E. Drake sold his fine farm, "Allagan," near Lexington on the Nicholasville pike, containing 125 acres, to Mr. C. W. Burt, the lumber magnet, of Ford, at $300 an acre.

Wonderful Cow.

Mr. A. N. Wells, of Shelby City, owns the greatest cow in the State.
She gives thirty-six quarts of milk each day. All the milk is churned each day and makes one and three quarter pounds of butter daily. She pastures on short grass and is fed a small quantity of ship stuff.

Exercises at Davis' Birthplace.

With simple but interesting exercises the Jefferson Davis Memorial Park will be dedicated June 3 at Fairview, twelve miles East of Hopkinsville, where one hundred and one years ago the President of the Confederacy was born.The ceremonies of the day will take place under the auspices of the Jefferson Davis Memorial Association. The principal orator will be Col. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, commander of the Kentucky Division of United States Confederate veterans, who last month generously advanced sufficient money—about $4,000—to close the options on seventeen acres of the Jefferson Davis farm which will be beautiful as a public park, and where a fitting memorial to the Confederate chieftitan to cost $50,000 will be erected.
